Off-Site Activities and Educational Visits Policy

Introduction

At Tweeddale, we recognise the importance of off-site activities and educational visits as a means of enriching pupils' experiences and enhancing their learning and development. However, we are also aware of the safety needs of our children and understand that detailed planning and procedures are necessary to ensure that these visits remain valuable learning experiences and to minimise the possibility of any accidents.

Visits should have a clear educational focus and be linked to the pupils' curriculum. Party leaders should visit the venue beforehand in order to have first-hand knowledge of the site and thereby minimise any risk. As with any other lessons, the activities children are to undertake on the visit should be appropriately planned and any tasks to be carried out should enhance and focus the learning or development.

Visits currently undertaken by children at Tweeddale fall into the following categories:

- Category A: Visits of less than half a day's duration, which do not include any adventurous activities and are confined to the local area, for example surveys, walks, visits to the library, visits to the local shops, leisure centre, park, field work, sports and cultural activities;
- Category B: Visits of a half or whole day's duration that do not involve adventurous activities but extend beyond the immediate locality and involve hired transport or public transport;
- Category C: Visits in this country that involve an overnight stay but no adventurous activities;
- Category G: Visits with or without an overnight stay that involve adventurous activities to be supervised by a third-party (e.g. commercial or independent organisation).

Responsibilities

The Governing Body has delegated approval for category A and B visits to the Headteacher. Governors' permission is required for visits in category C and G. Tweeddale's off-site activities and educational visits coordinator is the Headteacher.

Governors' Responsibilities

The Governing Body is responsible for the following aspects of off-site activities and educational visits:

- agreeing on appropriate policies and procedures for the safe management of school visits and off-site activities
- considering the details of each request for approval
- setting a charging and remissions policy in place.

Headteacher's Responsibilities

The Headteacher's responsibilities are detailed on pages 6-7 of HASWAGNC1 (Staffroom and Headteacher's office). In addition, the

Headteacher, when planning a visit, should take account of the following advice:-

- visits using a non-LA provider, pages 19–20
- travel and transport, pages 30-31
- health matters, pages 34–35
- model letter to inform parents of day's visit, page 51
- model letters to inform parents of residential visits, pages 52-53
- model letter to volunteer adult supervisors, page 56
- letters informing parents of a planned visit should conform to the governors' policy on charging, and the advice on pages 26–27.

Party Leader's Responsibilities

The party leader must be experienced in off-site visits and able to demonstrate sound judgement in risk assessment and in dealing with pupils and adults.

The party leader must complete EVOLVE and attach risk assessments for the trip. This must be completed at least 2 weeks before the trip is to take place.

The party leader is responsible for:

- Inputting information on EVOLVE
- Adding the trip date to the school diary or calendar
- Organise the additional staff for the trip, ensure they are all available on the suggested date.
- Arranging adequate supervision when the group is sub-divided or s/he is absent
- Ensuring that all accompanying adults have the appropriate DBS clearance
- Seeking parental consent for pupils to participate in the visit
- In the case of all visits, including residential visits, checking with parents about the medical needs of all children
- Prepare the route and transport - Ensure the booking of transport is confirmed; Organise the tickets for public transport at least 2 weeks before the visit
- Undertaking a pre-visit if s/he has not been to this venue within the last 6 months or sooner if s/he knows that significant changes have been made to the venue.
- Knowing the principles and procedures to apply in an emergency
- Safeguarding the health, welfare and safety of all pupils
- Ensuring that all accompanying adults are fully briefed and clear about their roles and responsibilities
- Agreeing with the Headteacher and all accompanying adults, the principles and procedures to apply in an emergency – see Emergency Plan (Appendix A)
- Maintaining organisation of paperwork, schedule, staff, payments – (from children and to the venue) and resolve any other issues that may arise at least 48 hours before visit.
- Organise packed lunch – free or paid for

Administrative Staff

The senior administrator in school will keep a record of all day visits using the form at Appendix C. Records of school visits will be kept in the school office.

Following the visit, an account of all costs and monies received in relation to the visit is to be given to the Headteacher, so that governors can be kept informed.

Booking Procedures

Wherever possible, educational visits, for classes, should be booked at the beginning of the school year to support the planned curriculum, although it is recognised that valuable opportunities might arise throughout the year.

A description of the visit and the intended learning should be completed on Tweeddale's pro-forma (Off-Site Activities and Educational Visits Notification Form (Appendix D)) and signed by the Headteacher or Deputy Headteacher before the booking is confirmed. A full risk assessment should be carried out beforehand (Risk Assessment pro-forma Appendix F). No visit should take place or letter be sent home to parents until the relevant documentation has been completed and agreed by the Head Teacher or the Deputy Head Teacher.

The cost of the visit is to be worked out on a per pupil basis. Parents should be informed in sufficient time to give them the opportunity to pay in instalments should they so wish. Voluntary contributions will be requested and no child will be excluded from a visit due to his/her parents' inability or unwillingness to pay. However, parents/carers should be informed that the visit may have to be cancelled if enough money is not collected. No child will be permitted to take part in a visit unless a permission slip signed by his/her parent/carer has been returned.

Children not attending trip / residential will continue normal education on school site.

Adult/Pupil Ratio

The following adult/pupil ratio is expected on any outing. In some circumstances a higher number of adults may be advisable e.g. where there are behavioural issues, 1-1 may be more appropriate.

	Number of teachers	Adult/Child Ratio (including teachers)
Foundation Stage	1 per class	1:4 Nursery 1:5 Reception
Key Stage 1 (Yrs 1-2)	1 per class	1:6
Key Stage 2 (Yrs 3-4)	1 per class	1:6
Key Stage 2 (Yrs 5-6)	1 per class	1:8

The Headteacher will use her discretion, within the limits of the policy on adult/child ratio for short visits in the immediate vicinity of Tweeddale. Class Teachers must let the Headteacher know when they are leaving the school premises.

Accompanying Adults

Other members of staff, governors, or parents/carers may accompany visits at the party leader's discretion. Each adult should be briefed in full about the details of the visit, learning intentions, number of children and any relevant issues. Parent helpers should not be left on their own with groups of pupils.

Any parent/carer or volunteer helper will be DBS checked. Expectations should be clear to all adults and there should be no smoking, drinking alcohol or swearing near pupils.

Briefing the adult helpers before the outing

When briefing adult helpers, the party leader should ensure the following:

- Helpers know for whom they are responsible. The class teachers/group leaders to give them each a list of names;
- They give clear expectations of children's behaviour on transport, whilst walking and at the outing venue;
- Helpers know the purpose of the visit and how they can contribute;
- Non-staff helpers are not be left on their own with the children;
- Helpers know rendezvous locations and times if the groups are splitting up – but keep the group together wherever possible;
- Helpers know who the accompanying first aider is, and what to do in an emergency;
- All helpers have mobile phone numbers of group leaders;
- Helpers are briefed verbally and in writing so that everyone understands what is required of them.

Parental Permission

All children included in the excursion should be given written permission by a parent or carer. Letters should be sent out allowing enough time for permission slips to be collected and checked. The child's class teacher/unit leader should keep permission slips for one term or three months after the visit.

At the beginning of the school year, parents will be asked to sign permission slips for short visits in the immediate vicinity of the school. These will be kept for the full school year.

Coach Travel

A coach is the safest form of transport for large groups of pupils. All children should be counted on and off the coach, wear seatbelts and remain seated throughout the journey. Where a class is split between two coaches, the party leader and assistant party leader must record which children go on which coach. This means drawing up a list beforehand. In the case of school visits, at least one teacher must travel on each coach. The leader on each coach should note the position of emergency doors, fire extinguisher and first aid equipment.

Pupils must be told:

- To behave sensibly
- To wear a seatbelt at all times, until you are told you can remove it.
- Not to eat or drink on the coach
- Not to leave litter
- To walk as they enter and leave the coach
- To remain seated until asked to get up
- To talk quietly to the person next to them
- Never to distract the driver or impede his/her vision
- Not to wave at or make signals to other drivers

- To stand well back from the coach when they are waiting to get on or for others to get off.

To avoid arguments, pupils should be asked to fill every coach seat from the front or back.

Walking

Groups moving on foot need constant supervision. Pupils should walk in pairs, except where the path is too narrow. One adult should lead the line of children; another should be at the rear. Other adult helpers should be positioned at regular intervals along the line, always walking between the children and the road.

The party leader should set a comfortable pace and check to ensure that the party stays together. When crossing roads, whenever possible, the whole group should collect in a line on the pavement. When the traffic is clear, two adults should stand on the road indicating to any oncoming traffic, whilst the pupils are led across. Arrangements for long lines, crossing busy roads in smaller groups, should be made before starting out. Recognised crossing places should be used whenever possible. The party leader should liaise with the Headteacher about acceptable distance for walking.

Pupils should be reminded to be considerate to other pedestrians by walking in an orderly manner and keeping the noise level low.

Public Transport

Pupils should be made aware of procedures and rules before starting out. They should be counted on and off any form of transport and remain seated throughout the journey. If possible, tickets should be purchased before the journey and the company informed of pupil numbers and times. London Transport does assist organisation of school journeys and should be contacted for advice. The party leader should always ensure that the chosen route is the safest with the fewest possible changes of train/tube/bus. The party leader should consult the coordinator about adult to child ratios before making any booking.

Cars

Staff intending to provide transport in their own vehicles must have a full driving licence and be covered by the appropriate business insurance. Seatbelts must be worn throughout the journey. When pupils are to be travelling in cars, parents/carers should be fully informed of the journey and the name of the driver, especially where the driver is another parent. Any adult responsible for driving pupils to or from an event should give a photocopy of their driving licence and insurance to the school office. Any driver should understand that, in the event of an accident, it is their insurance that will be claimed against, not the school's or LA's. Where parents make private arrangements relating to car-sharing or travelling to or from school events, it is up to the parents to ensure that they are fully satisfied that the driver is competent, qualified and insured.

Sutton Community Transport Minibuses

A number of members of staff have undertaken the Minibus Driver Awareness Scheme (MIDAS) training and may therefore, drive the SCVS minibuses. Tweeddale follows the Minibus Safety Code of Practice, a copy of which can be found with this policy. Party leaders must not assume that a trained member of staff will be available to drive. S/he must check prior to booking a minibus. No member of staff may drive a minibus unless they have undertaken the training and passed the test. Another member of staff must travel on the minibus, in addition to the driver.

Things to take on an Outing

- A trained first aider
- A list of medical needs
- Medical kit including sick bucket, gloves, tissues and, depending on the age of the children, spare clothing (underwear, trousers etc)
- Two visit information packs to include a list for each class or group on the outing, to include absences, medical details, and any other significant considerations
- A mobile phone, if possible (for an adult in each group, if possible)
- A label with school address and phone number for each child in Early Years, Foundation and Key Stage 1
- A copy of the Emergency Plan attached to this policy (Appendix A)

Standard of Dress

On most single day visits by school groups, school uniform should be worn. There may be some outings where school uniform is not appropriate e.g. farm visits. Parents should be informed of the expected standard of dress in the initial letter.

Residential Visits

At present, Tweeddale organises one residential visit each year for Year 6 pupils. This visit is planned in accordance with London Borough of Sutton's policy.

Evaluation

All off-site activities and educational visits must be evaluated for strengths and weaknesses by the party leader using the Off-Site Educational Visits Evaluation form (Appendix G). The form must be given to the Off-Site Activities and Educational Visits Coordinator within 1 week from the date of the visit.

Checklists to help organise and plan educational visits

This checklist is to help the Head, EVC and Group Leader to ensure the maximum educational value to young people whilst addressing through effective management, planning and organisation the health, safety and welfare of young people and staff. The checklist may be an aide-memoire and note pad to be used by the party leader or could provide a formal record for the Head or Governors. It may therefore be used by the Head to decide whether approval for a visit is given.
