Able Writers Workshop

On Tuesday, November 27th, Mr Dix took a group of 14 children in Years 5&6 to an able writers' workshop, run by professional poet and author Neal Zetter. The day included challenging activities based on simile, metaphor and performance poetry. The children also had the chance to buy signed poetry books - indeed some of them purposely bought the same ones so they could jointly read and enjoy them together! The day was a great success and should inspire the participants to further writing progress.
